HOW TO BUILD TOWNS. secret of the Wonderful Success of

Some Towns. Heuston Post. Atlanta Constitution prints a very inted editorial on the subject how ones and cities are built. Enlarging on the homely idea that before you how your rabbit you must catch nim, the nstitution says: "A town that expects orosper in this country must so spread s pets as to catch live men-energetic morressive men. A town with any graffs, advantages at all will succeed if as are energetic and enterprisor a community of live men will own and whittle white pine and town and its interests to stand town must have natural comlaivantages-but it might have all boming, and prices promise to be high throughout the month of August.

know as well as you can know that printer's ink is the best capital to boom nown. Had we not used it unsparingly Wichita would not have been larger than Carthoge. As is is, we will soop outrank any town in the state.

Here are nuts for Houston to crack Jastaix of them, but each one full of mest. There are some here who believe, or profess to believe, that the Post slows" too much. To these the quotathus above are earnestly, even prayerfely, commended. Commenting on what als Wignita business man says the Conattion boastfully remarks: "This s characteristic: there is a familiar twang about it that reminds us of home sweet home, as it were. In other words, the Wichita man talks like no Atlanta ordinary growth of Atlanta during the pastilitien years. The moral of this is ovious. There is not a town in Georgia per in the south that cannot achieve a resonable degree of presperity by blowmg is own horn." No one who knows
